Take aways

IT Target Architecture is grey, so Proximus defines aNorth star to give our colleagues direction.

There are better ways to simplify than with layer decoupling, moving to the cloud, tool consolidation, and adding extra systems.

At Proximus we listen to vendor strategies, radically simplify before automating, use an information model, and opt for a SIAM operating model.

Our architecture forms the base for a well performing company, that allows for continuous innovation.
